

Again

Jeni Wallwork copyright

There's a broken mirror in your eyes
Shattered dreams before me in shards disguised
Seven years of bad luck upon your face
Again
Another dawning call that proves it's true
Love has turned to hate, all lies are true
A broken world seen through broken eyes
Again

Chorus Love don't need to be so dark baby
I can see the light reflecting through
Let me try and glue the shards as one
Before they cut us both in two
Again, again and again

You have my life on broken glass bare skinned
If I stay you don't let me in
If I leave, I prove your world is cruel
Again
I'm cut which ever way I turn
I bleed, I drown, I freeze, I burn
Why does my faith in you get spurned?
Again, again

Chorus

Let the glassy splinters in your eyes
Reflect my love, not hurt and lies
In the looking glass it's you I see
You're my reflection, always will be
Again, again and again

Chorus

Queen of Self Destruction

Jeni Wallwork Copyright

I can't believe, I don't want to see
It's so unreal, this happening to me
I thought I was cool, nobody's fool
'Til you walked in the door
Cool to fool that's for sure

Why is love so sly, how can I be so high
When it doesn't matter at all, but when I'm with you I fall
I want you to see the very best of me
Deep inside is a jewel
But all you see is the fool

You make me freeze
I'm down here on my knees
You've got my heart
I'm down here torn apart
I have lost the art of seduction
I've become the queen of self destruction

I want you to see the other side of me
There's more to me I swear than meets your eye
How can I begin to show you the way in
When there's no hello I'm all goodbye

You make me freeze
I'm down here on my knees
You've got my heart
I'm down here torn apart
I have lost the art of seduction
I've become the queen of self destruction

This must be a love sent from stars above
I just want to show how I love you so

Ground Zero

Jeni Wallwork Copyright

I'm watching you, undercover man nine to five
Cheating death sometimes to feel alive
Living a movie of boy playing hero
But I know your heart's at ground zero

You are the boy who makes me laugh, makes me cry
Who lets me fall but makes me fly
I've looked at love before but none was true
I don't look at anyone like I look at you

I know your past was a holocaust
I see you walk its minefields today
Your trust is buried in the ashes
And your heart has blown away
But hey, this is me, here I am
I got love, enough for two
I am the one you need
I see inside you

Learn to trust me, don't let me go
I've been to the edge too, my scars still show
My heart survived, it wants you to try
Rise with me from the ashes and fly

If all the stars would make you smile
I'd give you the whole night's sky
I don't look at anyone like I look at you
And that's what makes me cry
But I try, and I cry, come on and try, try for me
I don't look at anyone like I look at you
Don't let me go ground zero boy

Voice

Jeni Wallwork Copyright

Sad and numb and empty
Lost and fragile, shaky
From the dark you tempt me
Voice within my head
I miss you so much
Seductive evil touch
Homage to perfection
Promise of control

Cruel friend of the night
Surreal life and death fight
You're all I have that's truly mine
In your black truth I shine

Scared anticipation
Excited fascination
Pain and power together
How do I refuse?

Cruel friend of the night
Surreal life and death fight
You're all I have that's truly mine
In your black truth I shine

Learning to live without you
Some days I'm strong
All I want is a fairy-tale ending
Leave my head alone
I want a, I want a life of love
Life of peace
A life where I can begin to like me

Sad and numb and empty
Lost and fragile, shaky
From the dark you tempt me
Voice within my head
I miss you so much
Seductive evil touch
Stop this crazy spiral
I must say goodbye

One Last Drink

Jeni Wallwork Copyright

I don't want you to fall in love with me
Falling in love is scary
I look at you and I start to fall
I hear the call to lose it all

The music plays and you dance so cool
You look my way I wanna fool with you
But maybe one last drink and then
Just maybe one more again
I'll be right then

So why do you keep looking at me?
Are you like me, so lonely?
The girl you're with, she looks so cold
I face the bar for just one last drink
I cannot feel I cannot think
I turn to find the answer in your eyes
Is this love in disguise?

I didn't want to fall in love with you
Falling in love just makes me blue
I turn to find the answer in your eyes
But you're gone, it's no surprise

So why did you keep looking at me
Were you like me, so lonely?
The girl you were with, she looked so cold
I didn't want to fall in love with you

Dead in Your Trax

Jeni Wallwork Copyright

You closed the door , left me raw, I'm all alone
I stare into space, hide my face, I'm all alone
You knew all the right words to say
Cruel words to justify breaking away
Words haunting me now looking back
You stopped me dead in your trax

You, I hear you're fine, you're all sunshine, I'm all alone
I spend life in bars and drive fast cars, I'm all alone
I try to unlock myself and break free
But you have the chains, you have the key
My whole world is starting to crack
You stopped me dead in your trax

I saw you the other day
You were different in every way
I was ashamed of the me you could see
Stuck right here where you left me

You are so strong, and I was wrong, I'm all alone
I'm crazy for you, what can I do, I'm all alone
I can't believe that they say
I'll get over you one day
I can't catch up, I'm too far back
You stopped me dead in your trax
I'm all alone

Angel Eyes

Jeni Wallwork Copyright

Here I am, so very lucky
Here I am, a second chance
It's a tightrope, but I'm walking
Balancing a fearful dance
All my life was happy, lucky
Had it all, an easy run
Til the darkness stole my heartbeat
Stopped the tide and froze the sun

Angel watching, watching over me
Angel eyes are watching, looking out for me

Took for granted all my treasure
Precious ones who give me all
Unconditional love and pleasure
All undone with one phone call

Angel watching, watching over me
Angel eyes are watching, looking out for me

Spiralling down the road of horror endlessly long
To the mangled wreck of innocence gone wrong
Searching for light in the darkness of death in disguise
Til I see the angel shining in your eyes

Here I am, tears of wonder
Open eyes and healing heart
In the darkness I can see her
We will never be apart

Angel watching, watching over me
Angel eyes are watching, looking out for me

Pledge

Jeni Wallwork Copyright

To feel safe in your arms
To explore a rocky shore
To sail into your deep blue eyes
To be happy to the core
To cry at a sad song
To ride a mountain trail
To soak up your loving aura

To be with you
To be true to you
To grow with you and love you for yourself

To sit with you in a forest
To sleep by a lonely lake
To learn how to trust
The commitment we make
To burn all night through
To sleep all entwined
To be scared by deep waters
Of new feelings we find

To let you go sometimes
To learn that you'll come back
To know the sun always comes up
Even when the nightmare is so black
To share a starry sky
To sign two hearts as one
To see a road together
Winding in the sun

I'm Sorry

Jeni Wallwork Copyright

I'm sorry it's over
Why did it take so long?
I'm sorry it's over
I wish I had been stronger for you
Kept my head much longer for you
Wish I'd been stronger months ago

It was dying, this feeling
But I didn't want to let it show
Afraid of being without you
I'm amazed you didn't know about it
Didn't think I could live without it
Amazed you didn't find out until now

What an actress I am
Giving you such a show
The tragedy sadly weaves on
The climax just reached
Her death is my part
How long can I keep up
This curtain call?

Afraid without you, afraid to let it show
Afraid without you baby, you didn't know
Afraid to let it show
Afraid without you baby, to let it go

It's over, where did we go astray?
We've grown so well
Played our roles so well
It hurts to realise that
All our growing was apart
That our passion-playwright scripts
A sad ending for the heart
Oh no, oh no, I'm sorry

Heart Attack

Jeni Wallwork Copyright

My heart died, I buried it a long long time ago
Too scared to risk the pain of love again
Then I was awakened by the sadness in your eyes
What happened next I can't disguise

Heart attack, heart attack, you brought me back

My heart beat so hard, I thought that it would break
You said that yours was beating just the same
How could this be, two hearts burst into flame
I didn't even know your name

Heart attack, heart attack, you brought me back

Always together now, we laugh about our hearts
They knew they had to beat as one
I've followed my head too long, 'til now it's had its way
I'll follow my heart from today

Heart attack, heart attack, you brought me back

Deja Vu

Jeni Wallwork Copyright

I must have known you in another life
When we met this time I knew
Deja vu so striking
Like a bolt right out of the blue
This life was miming now it has a voice
These eyes were blinkered now they see
From inertia you move me
From oblivion you set me free

I love you now I loved you then
It's my destiny to be with you again
Like a fairy tale come true
I was lost you found me
Deja vu

Now I now why we're so close
Woven threads of dreams and fears
In and out of lives together
Journey through a thousand years

I love you now I loved you then
It's my destiny to be with you again
Like a fairy tale come true
I was lost you found me
Deja vu

Another life, another time
Another name, another face
I'll know it's you
Deja vu

Moonshine Boy

Jeni Wallwork Copyright

Early hours this morning found me frightened and ghostly
You've found my long locked mind and forged yourself a key
I thought I'd left you far behind when I quit all I loved to escape you
Left town and all my friends to try and start anew

Please don't haunt me moonshine boy with those departed eyes
I couldn't have you when I needed, it's too late now for lies
Please ride your nightmare far away and cast your shadow there
Stop breathing fear into my new life, let me love again if you really care

I wanted you so much back then and now you're wanting me
It's Cupid's crazy arrows striking hearts that are not free
Your fantasy mirage can't have me now, your ghostly guise must fly
I want to face reality, hallucination moonshine goodbye

Chorus

Astral shades of moonlight mist, ghostly tombs of fluttered fears
Disembodied guise of memories past, don't spoil the healing of these last years
Moonshine boy, if you really care

So Lost Without You

Jeni Wallwork Copyright

So lost without you I can't see
So lost without you I can't hear
You stole my senses when you walked out on me
Took all I had but this pain in my heart
Took all the love out of my eyes
Your love songs from my ears
I'm numb without the touch your body gave me

So lost without you I can't fight
For life it don't come easy I've lost the right
To your inspiration, your moral support
Your soaring my senses so incredibly high

Here was I thinking that I was so free
With your love forever involved in just me
I was so blind in the heat of it all
I understand now I deserved such a fall

So lost without you I can't see
So lost without you I can't hear
You stole my senses when you walked out on me
Took all I had but this pain in my heart

Oooh so lost without you
